

HOPE & HEALING FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Prevention works. Help is available. Recovery is possible.

HOPE & HEALING FOR CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

A group of community partners has been working together to plan a week of events to promote hope, highlight resources, and strengthen substance abuse efforts in Chautauqua County.

The planning committee involved members of the Chautauqua Alcoholism & Substance Abuse Council (CASAC), HOPE Chautauqua Substance Abuse Prevention Coalition, the Mental Health Association in Chautauqua (MHA), Evergreen Health Services, Chautauqua Tapestry, the Chautauqua County Department of Mental Hygiene, local faith leaders, United Christian Advocacy Network (UCAN), WCA Hospital and dedicated community members.

The week of free events begins on Saturday, June 11 and will run through Friday, June 17, 2016. Registration information for each event that requires it can be found on Facebook at the links provided or by contacting Julie Franco at hopechautauqua@gmail.com or 664-3608 unless otherwise noted.
